3. Brief description of library service

4. Outline of initiative(s)

4.1 Objective(s) of your initiative(s).

4.2 Type(s) of initiative (e.g. training session, display, launch, quiz, etc.)

4.3 Targeted audience (e.g. new students, business people, etc.)

4.4 Duration (e.g. 1 day event, over 3 months, etc.). Include reasons, if any, why the particular time period was targeted.

5. Statements against the Selection Criteria

Please complete 5.1a and/or 5.1b.

5.1a Evidence that the use of ABS information by your library's clients has increased as a result of the initiative(s) (e.g. students are now using ABS information for assignments or teachers for research; enquiries about ABS information at the reference desk have increased; testimonials from clients, etc.)

5.1b Evidence that the level of sophistication of use has increased as a result of the initiative(s) (e.g. clients are using downloadable files as well as Main Features; CLIB in addition to census print publications; testimonials from clients, etc.)

5.2 Promotions to target client groups (e.g. use of media such as newspapers, radio, TV, and/or other communication channels such as web sites, newsletters or email alerts, etc.). Please attach any clippings, copies, etc.

5.3 Use of originality, creativity and innovation in the execution of the initiative(s).

5.4 Any other special factors (e.g. size or type of population serviced, remoteness, etc.)

6. Supporting evidence (Optional)

Please feel free to attach any other documentation that supports your application.

I agree/do not agree to allow the ABS to publicise my entry on its web pages, in the LEP Newsletter, etc. (Sharing will enable other libraries to use the best ideas!)
