CONSUMER PRICE INDEX – SEPTEMBER QUARTER 1975

Variations in retail prices as measured by the Consumer Price Index for the six State capital cities and Canberra are shown herein.

2. Compared with the previous quarter, the All Groups Consumer Price Index for September quarter 1975 increased by 0.8% for the weighted average of the six State capital cities. Changes in individual cities were : Sydney +1.5%, Melbourne +0.6%, Brisbane +1.6%, Adelaide -0.6%, Perth -0.1%, Hobart +0.7%, Canberra -0.1%. Decreases in the health services section of the index associated with the introduction of Medibank (for medical services in all cities and for hospital services in all cities except Sydney and Brisbane) have had a marked effect on the total index for this quarter. The falls substantially offset (and, in some cities, more than offset) increases in most other sections of the index. An analysis of these changes is given in the tables on page 3. For the weighted average of the six State capital cities the increase for all sections other than medical and hospital services was 2.9%.

3. Recent quarterly changes in the All Groups index have been as follows:

6. The Consumer Price Index measures quarterly variations in prices of goods and services as affecting a high proportion of the expenditure of wage-earner households in the aggregate. Changes in the pattern of this expenditure since 1950 have been such as to render it necessary to construct the index with additional items and changes in weighting patterns at intervals (rather than on the basis of a list of items and set of weights which remained unchanged throughout the period). Eight series for short periods have therefore been constructed and linked to form a continuous retail price index series published herein as the Consumer Price Index. In each period between links the items and weighting have remained unchanged.

7. A detailed description of the Consumer Price Index is contained in Labour Report No. 58, 1973 (Reference No. 6.7) which describes the sixth and seventh series of the index. The eighth series differs only because of the deletion of the item "radio and television licences" as from September quarter 1974.

8. The quarterly prices for food items used in the index are the averages of prices normally collected as at the middle of each of the three months of the quarter. However, for potatoes and for onions from December quarter 1968, weekly prices are averaged to arrive at monthly prices. Prices of all non-food items are collected at regular quarterly intervals (or at annual intervals with items such as local government rates and seasonal clothing) normally as at the middle of the mid-month of each quarter. However, for furniture, major household appliances and motoring items (other than motor car) the collection is made during the first month of each quarter to facilitate field collection arrangements.

9. The indexes measure price movements in each city individually. They do not provide a comparison of the retail price level in any city with the retail price level of any other city.

10. Table 1 on page 5 of this Bulletin shows Consumer Price Index numbers for each fiscal year from 1963-64 to 1974-75 and for each quarter from September quarter 1968. Table 2 on pages 6 and 7 shows Group Index numbers quarterly from September quarter 1972 to September quarter 1975.

11. Table 3 on page 8 shows monthly Food Group index numbers for each month from January 1972. In Table 4 information of contributions by the Food Group to the total index in terms of All Groups Index Points is shown for both June quarter 1975 and September quarter 1975 and each of the three months of this quarter, i.e. July, August and September 1975. A more detailed presentation of information on monthly food price movements can be found in the monthly bulletin Consumer Price Index, Food Group Index Numbers (Reference No. 9.11). Since the food group is the only group of the index for which prices are collected monthly, it is not possible to provide monthly indexes for other groups.

12. Table 5 on page 9 shows index numbers for June quarter 1975 and September quarter 1975 for groups and sub-groups of the index and for some special groupings. It also contains information of contributions by index sub-groups to the total index in terms of All Groups Index Points for these two quarters. Users of these figures should bear in mind that the Consumer Price Index is designed to measure the proportionate change in retail prices as combined in the five major groups and more particularly the total of the groups. For sub-groups or particular items, the index does not necessarily provide comprehensive and valid measures of price changes in those particular fields. Nor does it necessarily measure the relative influences of those classes of items in aggregate variations in prices. The Consumer Price Index is essentially a combination of selected items under various headings and not a dissection of total household expenditure into its component parts.

13. Movements of the indexes from one date to another are usually expressed as percentage changes rather than changes in the 'index points' because 'index point' changes are affected by the level of the index in relation to its base period while percentage changes are not. In this bulletin details are given in terms of percentage changes in paragraphs 2-5. However, the analysis in paragraph 14 shows movements in terms of All Groups 'index points'. This analysis shows the contribution of selected items and of the five groups to movements in the total indexes. Table 5 on page 9 shows movements expressed as both percentage changes and changes in 'index points'. The following example illustrates the computation of 'index point' and percentage changes :

All Groups : Weighted Average of Six State Capital Cities

Index Point Change		Percentage Change
Sept. quarter 1975 CPI (1966-67 = 100.0)	181.6	Index points difference divided by the index for the previous period $\frac{181.6 - 180.2}{180.2} \times 100 = 0.8\%$
less June quarter 1975 CPI	180.2
Index points difference	1.4

14. The following analysis and Table 5 on page 9 are provided to assist interpretation of movements shown by the Consumer Price Index from June quarter 1975 to September quarter 1975.

15. A summary of the various group indexes, together with the main quarterly price changes which affected the index between June quarter 1975 and September quarter 1975 is shown below:

Food Group. Increases occurred in all sections of the group except the potatoes and onions, beef and mutton sub-groups. Prices of bread increased in most cities and milk prices rose in Perth and Canberra. The group index for the weighted average of the six State capital cities increased by 1.6% for the quarter.

Clothing and Drapery Group. Increases in footwear and men's and women's clothing accounted for most of the increase in this group. The group index increased by 2.3% for the quarter.

Housing Group. There were increases in all sections of the group, especially rent and house price. The group showed an increase for the quarter of 3.6%.

Household Supplies and Equipment Group. There were increases in all sections of the group except household appliances. The group index increased by 2.4% for the quarter.

Miscellaneous Group. Increases in most sections of the group (especially motoring goods and motoring services and charges) were more than offset by decreases in health services. The latter decreases followed the introduction of Medibank for medical services in all cities and for hospital services in all cities except Sydney and Brisbane. Price changes for these services have continued to be measured on the basis of estimated net prices as payable by households. The movement in the index for the group, excluding the items medical and hospital services, was +4.2%. The index for the group as a whole (including medical and hospital services) fell by 2.0% for the quarter.

FOOTNOTES TO TABLES

- (a) Figures appearing after the decimal point possess little significance for general statistical purposes. They are inserted to avoid the distortions that would occur in rounding off the figures to the nearest whole number.
- (b) Weighted average of six State capital cities.
- (c) Any discrepancies between totals and sums of components in this table are due to rounding. For similar reasons quarterly movements shown by sub-group or group index numbers do not necessarily correspond exactly with those shown by the relevant index points.
- (d) See paragraph 13 on page 3.
- (e) Includes poultry as from December quarter 1968 and sausages as from December quarter 1973 (previously included in Beef sub-group).
- (f) Base : December quarter 1973 = 100.0.
- (g) Includes cooked chicken, meat pies, hamburgers and sandwiches.
- (h) Men's, women's, boys' and girls' summerweight outerwear and women's and girls' summerweight underwear.
- (i) Men's, women's, boys' and girls' winterweight outerwear and underwear, and blankets.
